SoundTrack Chamber Orchestra proudly presents;
Songs In The Key Of Love

Beginning with love songs from an unlikely stage play - Strike up the Band, by George and Ira Gershwin. “The Man I Love” comes from this musical, as do several other Gershwin standards.

“Falling in Love With Love” is from another musical - The Boys From Syracuse.

Perhaps our most unlikely love song is Sesame Street favorite, but you’ll have to come to the concert to find out what it is. We encourage you to sing along.

The highlight of the evening will be our own Shannon singing O Mio Babbino Caro, a perennial favorite. And no, Babbino does not mean baby. Shannon will tell you all about it on the 5th.

We have a love song from a “Kangaroo Western” performed by the Strings, while our Woodwind Quintet makes its debut with a Lerner and Lowe favorite.

For the melodica lovers we have a love song from 1969, guaranteed to melt hearts.

Featuring our horn player, Rich, we give you Superhero Love, written by one of our ensemble’s favorite composers.

The concert is free! Come enjoy the music, and donate if you’d like. We love our audience; you are the reason we do what we do.
